Stage 84 PERFORMING ARTS THE YORKSHIRE SCHOOL OF PERFORMING ARTS SUMMER SCHOOL

Founded in 1984 by Valerie Jackson MBE, Stage 84 is a leading performing arts school for young people. Thousands of children have attended Stage 84, either for recreation or to train specifically for a career in the performing arts industries. Students are guided by DBS checked, experienced staff, many of whom continue to work in the UK theatre industry or local schools. Our alumni includes Jack P. Shepherd (Coronation Street), Kimberley Walsh (Girls Aloud), Emma Williams (Half A Sixpence, West End), Freddie Butterfield (Billy Elliott, West End) and many others. Stage 84 has performed across the UK and internationally, and 2017 offers the chance for your child to join the Stage 84 team this summer for a fantastic experience in the performing arts.
